

A Republic â?? If You Can Keep It

Description

â??A Republic â?? If You Can Keep It.â?•

Lyrics: Sheila Plotkin, Kathy Miner for the Raging Grannies of Madison

Tunes: Auld Lang Syne & We Shall Not Be Moved

Should our Constitution be forgot

A-and never brought to mind?

Its framersâ?? efforts come to naught

Democracy declined?

To keep it or to let it go?

That choice is ours to make,

Generations whom weâ??ll never know

Will walk the path we take.

Our path must follow freedomâ??s light.

We-e will not kneel or cowâ??r.

This profound ideal is worth the fight.

Itâ??s the people who have powâ??r.

Speak out in one voice, strong and clear,

Renew our sacred vow.

For everything that we hold dear,

We are the guardrails now

Quick transition to â??We Shall Not Be Movedâ??:

Pay attention, weâ??re the guardrails now.

Did we mention, weâ??re the guardrails now.

We have the power to rescue our democracy.

We are the guardrails now!
