

America the Beautiful 2026

Description

Oh beautiful for spacious skies for amber waves of grain for purple mountain majesty above the fruited plain America, America,
your mountains are on fire your air and waters are defiled your future's looking dire

Oh beautiful for grand ideals of freedom, liberty of equal justice under law and true equality
But now we have a fascists state Our values are in shreds state terror and repression and the rule of law is dead

Oh beautiful for leadership, for aid to those in need, diplomacy around the world that's what we all believed Instead we have imperial wars with senseless death and gore, unspeakable atrocities from bombs that we paid for!

America, America,
We shed our tears for thee!
We're going to take you back and claim our land of liberty!
