

Dandelions Are GOOD For You

Description

We made a dandelion costume out of yellow & green garbage bags & had a can of raid chase it around during the two last verses. You can get young people to do this.

Dandelion flowers are a little sign of hope

Whoever poisons them on lawns would have to be a dope.

Or else someone who doesn't know what dandelions do

For our insides and our outsides and for our whole world too.

2) When dandelions are all grown

Their puffy heads turn grey

And with my breath I blow their fluff and watch it float away.

And in the spring it comes again

For us to pick and eat

A yellow dandelion lawn

Is Mother Nature's treat

3) If every lawn grew dandelions

Our air would be so sweet

Our tummies would be happy

They would tickle all our feet.

Every flower stands on guard

To help us day by day

I'll have a dandelion lawn

Where you can come and Play!

THEN WE ADD;

tune: Jeremiah was a Bullfrog

Dandelion lawns now

For the boys & girls now

No more poisons in the deep blue sea

Lawns for you and me!

Repeat 3 times, clap and form conga line then chant We love dandelions!
