

Lyrics by: Eva Monroe, Halifax Gaggle

Gaggle: Halifax

Tune: Quartermaster's Store

Date written or updated:

Dear Bank

(Start with Chorus):

My eyes aren't dim

I now can see,

I know something about the economy

I know something about the economy

- 1) There are suits, suits, exploiting the grass roots, in the world, in the world Chorus
- 2) There are corporate forces, plundering the resources, in the world, etc
- 3) We want eviction restrictions, oh stop these contradictions, in the world, etc Chorus
- 4) We pay tax, tax, while the rich relax, in the world, in the world
- 5) We have choice, choice, a chance to raise our voice, in the world, etc