

Hospitals Closing Down

Description

Hospitals, closing down
Nursing staff, almost gone
How can we meet the needs of the sick?
Well its you and itâ??s I
Making this big outcry
Speaking up for the ones in the wards
2) Cancer patient, pregnant wife
Their care can mean death or life
Speaking up for the ones in the wards
Mother, father, daughter, son,
Their care canâ??t mean losing one
Speaking up for the ones in the wards
3) Administrative salary cuts
Thatâ??s the way to save the bucks
Speaking up for the ones in the wards
We need nurses giving care
We need them now and everywhere
Speaking up for the ones in the wards!
