

Immigration Granny Blues

Description

It takes worried grannies, to sing a worried song.
It takes worried grannies, to sing a worried song.
It takes worried grannies, to sing a worried song.
Weâ??re worried now, but we wonâ??t be worried long.

Once we were all immigrants, how soon we forget.
Once we were all immigrants, how soon we forget.
Once we were all immigrants, how soon we forget.
Weâ??re worried now, but we wonâ??t be worried long.

Immigrants are going to feel, welcome in our land.
Children will be reunited, with their folks again.
The cages and the hatred, will be blown away.
Weâ??re worried now, but we wonâ??t be worried long.

2020â??s coming soon, just not fast enough.
2020â??s coming soon, just not fast enough.
2020â??s coming soon, please get out & vote.
Weâ??re worried now, but we wonâ??t be worried long.

Category

1. Government & Politics
2. Human & Civil Rights

Date Created

August 5, 2019

Author

ragin8

Meta Fields

Lyrics By : Original Robin Moore adapted by Mary Hussong-Kallen

Gaggle : Greys Harbor/Rochester

Tune : Worried Man Blues

Youtube Link : <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=txGQXXn51BQ>