

Insist On A Condom

Description

(Two at a time can take turns waltzing while the rest sing with condoms pinned on their hats)

I've got you a condom

I want you to wear it

We don't need a baby today

The Creator has given

Us good brains for using

When our love gets us feeling, that way.

v2) A condom's a blessing

A little life saver

You can call it a gift from above

If you use them

And wear them

The creator designed them

To help when expressing your love

V3 If a man won't wear condoms

Then he isn't thinking

About what you both need to do

If he loves you

He'll wear one

It's that plain and simple

And you'll know his sweet words

Are all true

v4) A baby has its right

To time and attention

Costs money to give him good food

And wearing a condom

Is all about babies

And bringing them into this world

v5) So don't pay attention

To those who don't get it

It's your body, your life to live

Insist on a condom

Be sure that he's donned one

And then you'll have your love to give!

6) P.S. There's diseases

You must know the AIDS virus is active and deadly today

Thank heaven, for condoms

The smart folks who use them

That's love in the very best way!
