

Lots of Better Places than Home for the Holidays – A Sobriety & Sanity Carol for Christmas

Description

Lots of better places than home for the holidays
Maybe best to stay far away and roam
If you usually have a hard time there on holidays
Think twice before you call that place your 'home.'

2) Sure everyone deserves a home but media
Have snuck schmaltz in where reality should be Nobody's home's a picture perfect paradise
Check the Christmas misery site – you will agree

3) Grieve that home that never was (without self pity)
You survived now you can make one of your own
Find a friend and then a brand new way to celebrate
Mean something special now when you say 'going home.'
