

Not Just About Bathrooms

Description

CHORUS:

They lie through their teeth with the greatest of ease,

Those bigots who'd bring us all down to our knees;

So we've got to stand strong and repeal Hate Bill 2,

It's not just about bathrooms, we know.

They thought they'd distract us with a transgender law,

But we've read the fine print and we know it's much more:

Taking rights from our workers, our cities and towns...

It's not just about bathrooms, we know.

REPEAT CHORUS

Minimum wages and fair labor laws

Are some of the things that we're now fighting for;

And the right to appeal in our very own state

When we face injustice, racism and hate.

They think they're immune from our fed-er-al laws,

And ignore them just like in the old Civil War.

But we'll fight them in court and we'll rage and we'll roar,

'Cause it's not just about bathrooms, we know.

REPEAT CHORUS

The homophobes pushing this bill quickly through
Thought we'd be fooled by the language they drew.
Government overreach surely must be
When they start making laws about where we can pee.

So it's Monday in Raleigh, and we're back today
To tell Pat McCrory that we're here to stay,
And we'll keep coming back if he drags us away...
'Cause it's not just about bathrooms, we know.
