

Old And Eccentric

Description

GrampaÂ forgets where he puts his spectacles, HeÂ puts his teeth in the wrong receptacles,
HisÂ table manners are not quite acceptable
ButÂ we say that's okay.

GrannyÂ goes to town in petticoat and slippers,
SheÂ wanders around in diving flippers,
SheÂ chases the squirrels with fingernail clippers,
ButÂ we say that's okay.

Uncle'sÂ always in a distracted muddle,
HeÂ drops his hearing aid in mud and puddle,
HeÂ likes to give telephone poles a cuddle,
ButÂ we say that's okay.

AuntyÂ sits dreaming for hours together,
She swims in the lake no matter the weather,
She'llÂ drive you nuts with her constant blether,
ButÂ we say that's okay,
HeyÂ –
We'llÂ be just like them one day.

Category

1. Human & Civil Rights

Date Created

October 7, 2012

Author

ragin8

Meta Fields

Youtube Link : youtu.be/V_UhnxBf28

Tune : Ten Little Indians

Gaggle : Barrie

Lyrics By : Anita Macfarlane