

Our Vision

Description

Mine eyes have seen the glory of a coming world of peace where poverty is gone and threats of war forever cease
Where every child around the world is safe and loved and free
The world that's meant to be

Glory, glory, jubilation!
We'll make peace with every nation
All the world is our relations
Our vision is the key

We reject the grapes of wrath, the bitter grapes of hate and fear
We see harmony with everyone, across the sea and here
And the day when Earth can heal from our abuse is coming near Let's see this vision clear!

Glory, glory, jubilation!
We'll make peace with every nation
All the world is our relations
Our vision is the key
