Politicans and Raging Grannies

Politics and Raging Grannies Symbiotically

Go together, quite non-partisan

Voluntarily

Like those little birds on hippos

Looking for the fleas

If we elect 'em

We'll inspect 'em

Very publically!

2) Politicans - Raging Grannies

What a useful fit

When they stray from what they promise

We see every bit

Then we put these flaws to music

(Though it often makes our hearts sick)

We called it right on [Stockwell Day]

We know what makes [him] tick!

3) If you wanna run for office

(even some grannies do)

Then be prepared to keep your promises

Watch just what you do

Make a difference to our country

Sacrificing wealth and bounty

And check back often with the folks

Who have elected you.
