Poor PM Pops Pensions - O That Wascally Harper!

Tune: To Know, Know, Know Him (Lively youtube versions all over the place - just google)
by Rose DeShaw

O Stephen Harper [spoken]- (exasperated lead in)

Headshaking in frustration: Gesture to audience & start singing:

Can't trust trust trust him

With our old age pension funds

And I don't and I don't and I don't

Just to see him smile

O that crocodile!

To know know know him

Is to doubt, doubt, doubt him

And I do (and I do and I do)

We've been good to him

Majority we've given him

Some people say that he's quite the guy

Most shake their heads & they wonder why

Just to know him

Is to doubt doubt doubt him

And I do (and I do and I do)

Why can't he see

Old age's no cup of tea

Someday he will be

Richer by far than you & me

Oh oh oh oh oh oh

Can't trust trust trust him

There's no love, love lov'in

Just to see him smile

Chills me quite a while

To know know know him

Makes me doubt doubt doubt him

And I do (and I do and I do)
