Tune: Hail To The Chief

Presidential Women

Gender doesn't matter when we're talking presidential Female stereotypes don't register at all
What we seek is wisdom to repair a broken country Uncommon commitment to peace for us all!

Bitchiness isn't a trait reserved for women Leadership of government's too serious for that Look closely at the history and set aside the gender With all of the free world watching it's requiesat!

'Hail to the Chief' means the pinnacle of choices Stands head and shoulders above all the rest No hint of gender, race or creed must mar this.
No blight of politics - we say, 'here's our BEST! Rose
