

Release the Report

Description

CHORUS:

Release the report and don't sell us short;
We have the right to know, you know.
Our future is riding on what you are hiding,
So show us the full report!

Robert Mueller, a man in good standing,
Set out to find out what was true;
Now he might not have found real collusion,
But just what else did Donald Trump do?

REPEAT CHORUS

This report was two years in the making
And four pages is all that we got,
Now the people demand full disclosure
And we don't think that's asking a lot.

REPEAT CHORUS

Our president's known for his lying,
And we can't trust a thing that he's said.
When he claims that he's exonerated
Then that must mean he's guilty instead.
