

Send Home the Marines

Description

Did you ever think youâ??d see the day,
Did you think thereâ??d come a time,
When peaceful protest in the street
Would be treated as a crime;
When a nation claiming freedom
And the right to think and speak,
Would be brought down by a fascist coup
That attacks the poor and weak?

First they came for college students
And for labor unions, too;
Then they came for foreign immigrants
Workinâ?? hard to make it through.
And theyâ??re coming for the journalists
And for all who dare speak out
Against the bigots and the billionaires,
And thatâ??s why we rage and shout.

Now their emperor who has no clothes
Will be parading in DC.
With his tanks and drones he thinks heâ??s tough
But itâ??s plain for all to see
That heâ??s a chicken in wolfâ??s clothing
And heâ??s a king just in his dreams
So weâ??ll sing and march as we demand
That you send home the Marines.
Yes, the people claim our power now
And weâ??ll stop your fascist schemes.
