

We Know You, VERIZON!

Description

Have we told you lately that we know you? Can we show you all the things we know?
O Verizon even with your 19 billion profits
Youâ??re outsourcing a darn good workforce now

The world you live in isnâ??t like where we live
Your execs with two hundred million pay
While you cut worker benefits and sick days
Verizon, we canâ??t take this today

Have we told you lately, on retirement
That health insurance must go on?
O Verizon, people arenâ??t disposable
Commodities.
Verizon, weâ??re telling you now

Outlandish pay makes you look very greedy
Especially in these economic times
All the countryâ??s looking at Verizon
And their workers in the unemployment lines
