

What Granny's Can Expect

Description

It may be hard for you to take a stand
Even though you see what's happening in our world
But if you step out strong
They'll be others come along
Till one by one our voices can be heard
2) They may laugh
Call your names to shut you up
They might be trouble
Somewhere on the way
But if you come in peace
Understanding will increase
Till bit by bit there comes
A better day
3) So let us go
Talk to others when we can
About the things around us going down
And if you do your share
You'll find that folks still care
Till day by day we've turned
This world around.
