

When Will Occupy Go Home?

Description

Wall street bankers are they
With all of the clout and say
They tell us what to do and everything simply goes their way
Theyâ??re Congressâ??s favorite lads
That connection is ironclad
Their governmental grafting is absurd and it makes us mad.
The Vanderbiltâ??s donâ??t ask US up for tea
Why theyâ??re ignoring us we just canâ??t see â?? no siree

We would drive up and ask them but we havenâ??t got the gas
We would sail but weâ??re boatless so we guess weâ??ll have to pass
We would ride on a bicycle but we havenâ??t got a bike
So weâ??ll keep occupying
O weâ??ll keep occupying
Till the whole one percent knows what we like!

Refrain:

We donâ??t think occupying is so swell
But these old financial handshakes really smell â?? what a SMELL!
Weâ??ll go home when we see the bankers spread around their dough
Weâ??ll go home when the taxman calls them up to say, â??hello.â??
Weâ??ll go home when weâ??ve made things clear, the people finally know
Till then, keep occupying
O weâ??ll keep occupying
Yes, weâ??ll keep occupying till they know!

Category

1. Business & Economy
2. Government & Politics

Date Created

November 14, 2011

Author

kingston

Meta Fields

Lyrics By : Rose DeShaw

Gaggle : Kingston

Tune : A Couple of Swells

Youtube Link : youtu.be/Hrzo5SPaOvg